

Be Still My Heart

The Postal Service

I was running late for work
So I didn't change my shirt
The evening's drinks
Left a lingering taste in my mouth And when I left you were fast asleep
Tangled in the sheets
And on the bus I could have sworn it was all a dream
And it didn't happen to me And then I felt the scrapes
From the slippery subway grate
Oh, how you laughed
At my complete lack of grace But I could not recall
A more perfect fall
'Cause when I looked up into your eyes
It didn't hurt at all And I thought, be still my heart
This could be a brand new start with you
And it will be clear if I wake up and you're still here
With me in the morning And I thought, be still my heart
This could be a brand new start with you
And it will be clear if I wake up and you're still here
With me in the morning Be still my heart
This could be a brand new start with you
And it will be clear if I wake up and you're still here
With me in the morning
