

Apollo Amateur

Jawbox

time to drive out to nowhere special just to believe you're thinking straight soothed by the blurred and interstitial happy to ruminate on hate slurring the words to half a love song shamed like the amateur on stage mouthful of coins for penny candy dreaming there's nothing more at stake it's so sweet taste fuel for faking
love and dread soundtrack and a contract sewn tight unsaid thickening air, sickening siren lullaby far beyond the call makes too much noise about desire for words to mean anything at all it's so sweet
soundtrack and a contract sewn tight unsaid it's some cheat the hand over your head put it to bed solace in a soulless insight lie well not to be a liar call out not to miss the call send yourself driving out to nowhere forswear the pride, you love the fall how can anybody know you you don't know yourself at all
