New Theme

The Shouting Matches

Well just call, I will be on my way to you
Oh, only if you want me to Carry me on, carry me on my way to you
Oh, only if you want me toWell I told you once (I told you once)
Well you looked me in the eye (I looked you in the eye)
Must've said something wrong (you said something wrong)
When I told you more lies (you told me more lies)
And you may not believe, but I tell you the truth
I will be on my way to youJust call me child, I will be on my way to you
Well only if you want me to
All of this time, I have been on my way to you
Well only cause you told me toWell you told me once (I told you once)
And you told me twice (I told you twice)
I must've said something wrong (you said something wrong)
And I told you more lies (you told me more lies)
And you may not believe, but I tell you the truth
I will be on my way to you
