

Love Song

Madonna

Je suis prete, vous etes prêts aussi?Are you wasting my time

Are you just being kind

Oh, no, baby, my love isn't blindAre you wasting my time

Are you just being kind

Don't give me one of your linesSay what you mean, mean what you say

Don't go and throw our love away

God, strike me dead if I did you wrong

This is not a love songNow you just being kind

Am I losing my mind

(Losin' your mind)

Oh, no, baby

(Yeah)Are you wasting my time

(Wasting my time)

Are you just being kind

Oh, no, baby, my love isn't blindAre you wasting my time

(Time, time, time)

Are you just being kind

Don't go give me one of your linesSay what you mean, mean what you say

Don't go and throw our love away

God, strike me dead if I did you wrong

(Did you wrong)

This is not a love songOoh, are you just being kind

(What)

Am I losing my mind

Yeah, don't

(Wait)Time goes by so slowly for those who wait

And those who run seem to have all the fun

But am I wasting my time

(She's so fine)

Are you just being kindCome tell me what all your enemies told you

Sugar, never ever did I do you wrong

This is not a love songAre you just being kind

Am I losing my mind

(Losin' your mind)

Oh, no, baby

(Yeah)Are you wasting my time

(Wasting my time)

Are you just being kind

Oh, no, baby, my love isn't blindAre you wasting my time

(Time, time, time)
Are you just being kind
Don't go give me one of your lines Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
That's how I feel, don't fuck my mind
Mean what you say or baby, I am gone
This is not a love song Ooh, you just being kind
Embrasse moi
(What)
Am I losing my mind
Pour la dernire fois, yeah Love song, love song
Don't try to tell me what your enemies taught you
I'm gone but I just want you to know
(Love song)
That this is not a love song that I want to sing
