The Conclusion Pt. 1

Rendezvous Point

[Note: Some of the words in this song is quite hard to hear, and words/phrases that I wasn't certain of is marked with a "(?)". Some words may not even make sense to the rest of the lyrics, however, it's the best I can do. So if anyone can correct my on something, feel free to do so].

Confusion reigns inside this troubled mind again
Conflicting voices
Kindness is lost, there is no place for abortees (?)[Makes little sense]
Madness starts here

There is darkness inside these eyes
Filled with hatred and despise
Distorted view on life

There is emptiness inside this heart
I never reached the start,
From where it all began

You will never know my true story
Oh, this is my salvation
No one will ever understand
There's no logic here,
There is just hunger

There's nothing that can justify my act
To selfishly simply despair (?) [Makes little sense]
The animal has got to me
Mercy is gone

My hate and wrath is growing
My rage is craving for more distraught (?)[Makes little sense]
Nothing that can stop me now
I want it all and you have to bow

Make a wish,
Say your prayer
Hit the ground with your knees and scream
This is no time to surrender,
It is my time to shine
If a grasp, if I rule my mind

[Alternatively: If I rightfully rule my mind]

There is darkness inside these eyes
Filled with hatred and despise
Distorted view on life

There is emptiness inside this heart
I never reached the start,
From where it all began
