

Brainchild

Bloodlet

Persecution of compassion cold sabbath
a dying man in a dying room alone with a demon
the souls of your indiscretions hold your rage
he is the key that set them free
cold in his hell
fear of failure
so you were forged
from the hammers of gods underhand glance reeks of vengeance insignificant
alone in his hell
I can hear him thinking but i can't listen Brainchild of humanity suffering through his intellect mental scarification
treasonous thoughts
and his demons shriek
never to be thought of again until the next time I taste it bitter and bland as watered betrayl sifts across my mind sifts sifts across
sifts across my mind
doors in the heavens
lead to tunnels in the mind where brainchild wades
through the pissfountain searching
for his lost
loves

black shape of the nexus controlling force
face of stone
face of stone
unflinching unheard
unloved
whore
