Alone

Mustard Plug

I saw you today. Had nothing to say. I just walked on by right on my way. You flashed me a smile, I threw it right back. It wasn't my miss I know for a fact.
Why won't you why won't you leave me alone!? Why won't you why won't you leave me alone?! Why won't you why won't you leave me alone?! I want to get out on my own!
I went to the store to get me some eats, I grabbed a box of shredded wheats. And through the shelf, I saw your face. Why must you follow me every place?
Why won't you why won't you leave me alone!? Why won't you why won't you leave me alone?! Why won't you why won't you leave me alone?! I want to get out on my own!
I decided to move, had to get away. To a distant island in honnelei(spelling?) My friends through me a party, to get me boned, you were there won't you leave me alone!?
Why won't you why won't you leave me alone!? Why won't you why won't you leave me alone?! Why won't you why won't you leave me alone?! I want to get out on my own!
