

Run Away

Cosmic Gate & Eric Lumiere

You have been afraid
Now its time to face the light
It's the reason you want
The reason you want
To be alive
You have been asleep
Now its time to wake inside
You're hearing a call
The call that you try to deny
(The call that you try to deny)
Come
If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come
If you wanna see what i can see
Tonight tonight
Meet me on the plane
The place where both the worlds collide
The place with no feel
The place where no hate
Can decide
When you're here youre safe
In my arms you cannot hide
The truth of your hearts
The one that you are you can't deny
(The one that you are you can't deny)
Come
If you wanna run away with me
Tonight tonight
And come
If you wanna see what i can see
Tonight tonight
