

Get Lost

Jeris

Wish all the hashtags, likes, and tweets would find a way to get lost
And when I pull up to the scene I wonder what the hell is the cost
And yeah I know you've never seen nothing like this before
But this is different, I deserve to find some self comfort So find a way to get...

We know we know we know we know its all for nothing
And we fight and beg and greed and then we go and act like something
And our eyes burn with the heat of a thousand suns
And we cry out loud cause we just want attention
And we feel alive from a fake medium

I wont accept this life that fate has given So find a way to get lost

So find a way to get lost

Just find a way to get lost

So find a way to get lost So find a way to get...

Wish all the hashtags, likes, and tweets would find a way to get lost
And when I pull up to the scene I wonder what the hell is the cost
And yeah I know you've never seen nothing like this before
But this is different, I deserve to find some self comfort
