

Cruise Elroy

Slow Buildings

I'm cruising round and round and round your street
I'm cruising round and round and round your beat
And I don't want to say what you know is true
You feel me creeping up to you
You can run, you can hide, but unless I'm blue
I'm catching up to you

Just like everybody has to wait in line
I will starve until it's my time
I'm in a blaze in your final maze
But you know
Yes, you know

It's a dark world
So I'd rather be light
It's a hard world
So I try not to fight
It's a cold world
Maybe you have found that, too

It's a dark world when I've nothing to prove
It's a hard world when you've nothing to lose
It's a cold world here
Maybe you have found that, too
I'll stick with you
