We Will Become Silhouettes

The Postal Service

I've got a cupboard with cans of food Filtered water and pictures of you

And I'm not coming out until this is all overAnd I'm looking through the glass

Where the light bends at the cracks

And I'm screaming at the top of my lungs

Pretending the echoes belong to someone

Someone I used to knowAnd we become

Silhouettes when our bodies finally goI wanted to walk through the empty streets

And feel something constant under my feet

But all the news reports recommended that I stay indoorsBecause the air outside will make

Our cells divide at an alarming rate

Until our shells simply cannot hold

All our inside's in and that's when we'll explode

And it won't be a pretty sightAnd we'll become

Silhouettes when our bodies finally go

And we'll become

Silhouettes when our bodies finally goAnd we'll become

Silhouettes when our bodies finally go

And we'll become

Silhouettes when our bodies finally goWe'll become

We'll become

We'll become

I will become, I will become
