

Shattered

Kreessa Turner

We had a good love
But that moment has passed
When you're young no one tells you
Somethings are too good to last
My friends think I'm crazy
The way that I carry on
'Cause when they ask me about you
I tell them I've learned to move on
But when I think of you I feel broken
Holding on to pieces of words left unspoken
And ooh hoo, I'm shattered
Whenever I look at your face
Ooh hoo, I'm so shattered
'Cause I can't stop missing
The one thing that I can't replace, yeah
Now I don't need nobody
I'm independent and strong, yeah
And if the choir stops the singing, oh
I'll just keep singing my song
But when I think of you I feel broken, yeah
Holding on to pieces of words left unspoken
And ooh hoo, I'm shattered
Whenever I look at your face
Ooh hoo, I'm so shattered
'Cause I can't stop missing
The one thing that I can't replace
I still recall the tragedy of how you fell away from me
And I must confess my heart's still a mess
And even though I'm stronger than I used to be, it never ends
The need to be with you 'cause baby I miss you
And ooh hoo, I'm shattered
Whenever I look at your face
Ooh hoo, I'm so shattered
'Cause I can't stop missing
The one thing that I can't replace
Ooh hoo, I'm shattered, yeah
Ooh hoo, I'm so shattered
'Cause I can't stop missing
The one thing that I can't replace
