Rearview Mirror

TermanologyÂ°

I've been livin', I've been locked inside a fantasy
I've been beggin' for a single moment
I need to tell you I've been thinkin' of you endlessly
And won't you listen to the words I'm speakin'Don't you know that I've been wishin' one day
You'll be standin' there lookin' my way
You know, you know
I don't wanna be the only one fallin'Now I'm drivin' away with what I wanted to say
Now I'm left with the words never spoken
If I could go back in time, if I could only rewind
Take me back to the way that we were beforeWith one chance, and one try
I'm tellin' you that tonight I'm gonna get right
I see things much clearer
Tired of livin' life through the rearview mirrorIf there's a chance then I don't ever wanna let it end
You're like a river and I'm divin' right in
I miss your voice I hear it echoing inside of me
Won't you listen to the words I'm speakin'Don't you know that I've been wishin' one day
You'll be standin' there lookin' my way
You know, you know
I don't wanna be the only one fallin'Now I'm drivin' away with what I wanted to say
Now I'm left with the words never spoken
If I could go back in time, if I could only rewind
Take me back to the way that we were beforeWith one chance, and one try
I'm tellin' you that tonight I'm gonna get right
I see things much clearer
Tired of livin' life through the rearview mirrorWe could save this
We could make this right
Give me one, one more chance tonightNow I'm drivin' away with what I wanted to say
Now I'm left with the words never spoken
If I could go back in time, if I could only rewind
Take me back to the way that we were beforeNow I'm drivin' away with what I wanted to say
Now I'm left with the words never spoken
If I could go back in time, if I could only rewind
Take me back to the way that we were beforeWith one chance, and one try
I'm tellin' you that tonight I'm gonna get right
I see things much clearer
Tired of livin' life through the rearview mirrorYou know I am, you know I am
Tired of livin' life through the rearview mirrorYou know I am, you know I am
Tired of livin' life through the rearview mirror
