Rain

Anggun

Waves of reality
Lifting me unexpectedly
Looking inside to see
Visions of you and me
Confide my heart to you
Blindly erase my every doubt
Surrender myself to you
For passion I've lived without
C/o
Rain...
In a mystery
Waking all of my dreams suddenly
Oh rain...
Tears of ecstacy
Falling into the arms that they say I'd strayed
Helplessly falling again

Carelessly give my heart away
Unlucky yes I have been
Cause love just never stays
Is a heart made to break
Is there in love an addiction
I don't know how long it takes
Before another burn
Rain..
In a mystery
Waking all of my dreams suddenly
Oh rain...
Tears of ecstasy
Falling into the arms that they say I'd strayed
Rain down on me
Gently take me to where I should be
Oh rain...
Tears of ecstacy
Falling into the arms that they say I'd strayed
