

Good Enough

Anita Baker

Now you can count on me for anything you choose
Say but the best that I can offer is love true
Still I know you wonder why
This love of mine seems to die
As if I
Live in the clouds and you live in the sea Now you can bet your bottom dollar
That I love you
Now for a basic fact like that
You'll need no clue I just hope you think I'm good enough
I hope you think I'm girl enough
I hope you believe in chemistry for two
I really do, I, I do My my baby, I'm telling you honey... For your love baby,
Said I would walk thru fire
For your love honey
Said I would reach my highest ground
For this love baby
There ain't nothing that can turn me around
And I'll never let you down For your love baby
I'd take a walk thru fire
For your love honey
Said I would reach my highest ground
For your love baby
There ain't nothing that could turn me...
I'd die for your love, lie for your love
I'd even touch the sky, for your love... Baby bet your bottom dollar
That I'm gonna love you
Said for a basic fact like that
You'll need no clue I hope you think I'm good enough
I hope you think I'm girl enough
I hope you believe in chemistry for two
I tell you, I hope you think I'm girl enough
I hope you think I'm good enough
I hope you believe in chemistry for two
I really do... (Scatting & ad libs)
