Agnostic Front

I've come to the end, nowhere to go
Look back and I see remains left in the road
Can't keep me behind closed doors or locked up in a cage
I'll rise again, my strength comes from my painTime to break free, don't hold me back
The world is mine, be it cruel and unkind
Can't keep me behind closed doors or locked up in a cage
I'll rise again, my strength comes from my painVoices, voices
(Voices in my head, tells me I'm insane)
Voices
(Me grita en mi cabeza)
Voices
(Voices are to blame)I've come to the end, nowhere to go
Look back and I see remains left in the road
Can't keep me behind closed doors or locked up in a cage
I'll rise again, my strength comes from my pain
