

Grace

Patrick Watson

Grace keeps giving me things I don't deserve
Mercy keeps withholding things I do
Words that seldom fail me
Leave me looking for the words
To express my gratitude This list keeps getting longer
More than I can count
I thought I could get close to more deserving Unworthy on my best day unworthy at my worst
To receive this blessing that You give me freely Grace keeps giving me things I don't deserve
Mercy keeps withholding this I do
Words that seldom fail me
Leave me looking for the words
To express my gratitude You must have Your reason
You must have a plan
You must see some treasure here I'm missing
If I could see myself through Your eyes
It would be easier to breathe
And display Your loving kindness to the world around me Grace keeps giving me things I don't deserve
Mercy keeps withholding this I do
Words that seldom fail me
Leave me looking for the words
To express my gratitude For grace
