

In The Company Of Wolves (Live in Detroit)

Incubus

I was lost but now I am found.
A line was crossed, a vessel run aground.
The boy is gone, let's grieve and let him go.
He left at dawn, but it's a new day don't you know? In the company of wolves I sat in silence observant and afraid He was there with the eyes like glowing embers the man you see was made. I was low but now I am high
It helps to know serenity from any why.
(oh) Something's wrong, something's wrong, when it all remains the same.
So face the fire, come into your name. In the company of wolves I sat in silence, observant and afraid.
He was there with the eyes like glowing embers, the man you see was made. Ohhhhhooo Even I can't recall how many days I had been out there for
but when auroras lights cease to shine
I was alive i think for the first time
and vanity it falls in feathery folds
but she bites like loveless eyes
and with her belly full she called this right
of passage it was the longest night of my life(it was it was it was...) the longest night of my life(it was it was it was...) the longest night of my life Even I can't recall how many days I had been out there for
but when auroras lights cease to shine
I was alive i think for the first time
and vanity it falls in feathery folds
but she bites like loveless eyes
and with her belly full she called this right
of passage it was the longest night of my life(it was it was it was...)
the longest night of my life

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>