

I See Jesus

Cristy Lane

I didn't see the teardrops fall, in the garden where He cried.
I didn't see the nail-scarred hands, or where they pierced His side.
I don't know what Jesus saw as He looked through tear-filled eyes,
But I see Jesus in every tear I cry.

I didn't see the crown of thorns they placed upon His head.
I didn't see the stripes He bore or hear the words He said.
I didn't see the blood that flowed from Calvary where He died,
But I see Jesus in every tear I cry.

I didn't see the empty tomb where my Savior laid.
I didn't see the stone rolled back, but I know He lives today.
I don't know when He's coming back to take His waiting bride,
But I see Jesus in every tear I cry.

Chorus:

I see Jesus in every tear that falls,
I feel His presence now - He hears me when I call.
I don't know what others see when they look through tear-filled eyes,
But I see Jesus in every tear I cry.
But I see Jesus in every tear I cry.
