The Stranger

Fastway

Looks like I've been here before
But I don't remember places faces, just tell me that I've been Sing my song, every night
But the answer lies between the lineChorus:
Someone's knocking, on my door
Is a stranger, who said that she had been here before
But I never, never seen the look in such lies
The cold, story That never cryLook at her vision
On the wall
Tell me, where I am tomorrow
Down and weary
But I don't, I don't see clearly
The shape, of things to comeChorus
Well I've seen your face
Smile, warm embrace
Ah make you, make it tonight yeah
Well it looks like I've been here before
But I don't, I don't-I don't remember
Hoo-uoouooooSoloChorus (with minor changes)
