BROODS

Kissing in the hallway
Turn off all the lights
Fragments of a lost love
Dissolve into the nightAnd I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forgetBut it's the pain inside your eyes
Under the streetlights, I got you
Your restless limbs are going wild
Coming for mine 'cause I've got youClimb into the backseat
Sitting on each other's knees
Wanna be on repeat
Acting like real ladiesAnd I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forgetBut it's the pain inside your eyes
Under the streetlights, I got you
Your restless limbs are going wild
Coming for mine 'cause I've got youI got you
I got youAnd I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forgetBut it's the pain inside your eyes
Under the streetlights, I got you
Your restless limbs are going wild
Coming for mine 'cause I've got you
