

If You Turn Your Back On Love

Blue Six

It's not enough.
You're hiding underground.
Believe in us...we begin to live right now.If you turn your back on love,
deny the things you feel.
There's not enough of anything to give you what you need.Well, I've tried to make you see.
That the truth will make you free.Yes, I know,
It's just cliché
"But someone learns it everyday!"[Chorus]
If you turn your back on love,
and hide the things you need,
There's nothing that comes from anyone, that can make your world completeIf you turn your back on love,
deny the things you feel.
There's not enough of anything to give you what you need.It's hard to say goodbye,
mmmm, so many happy days,
I start to wonder why it has to be,
Nothing feels the same,Baby, what's changed?[Repeat Chorus]Since you're gone, and it really doesn't matter what you've come to think,
This time now,
Gonna make it better
