Walk Through Fire

Indian Jewelry

Darling don't you ride so fast
Don't you want to try to make this thing last
Tell me how can I prove I'd walk through fire
I know you've had a very hard time
No I don't know the facts but I've seen it in your eyes
And this much is true, I'd walk through fire for you chorus:
We both have reason to be afraid, but a choice has been made
No love is written in stone, but I'll walk through fire, through fire
Oh - I'll walk through fire for you, through fire
'Cos I know you'd do the same for me
Oh baby let's run away, let's break up some other day
Write love songs and lullabies, make love while the skies go by
I want to prove, I'll walk through fire for you
chorus
Flame destroy a love, flame make it stronger
Forge a blade of love, and satisfy my hunger
So we're afraid of love, I can't hide any longer
We'll find the courage as we go
Let the little boys pretend that there's some kind of supermen
With tough talk and alibis and flags to defend Things too young for us to do, but I'll walk through fire for you
We both have reason to be afraid, but a choice has been made
No love is written in stone, but I'll walk through fire, through fire
Oh - I'll walk through fire for you, through fire
Maybe someday we'll walk through fire, through fire
Oh I'll walk through fire for you, through fire
'Cos I know you'd do the same for me
