

Neon Nights

Accept

When the day is done the night rolls in
Lonely lovers come alive
Like a heartbeat in a world of sin
Cruising around hungry eyes Like a midnight train going nowhere
Fading dreams of the city
Penthouse beds, sweet love affairs
Crimes of passion for the pretty Man in blue on his beat
Unseen faces in the streets Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame
Neon nights, neon nights, never change
Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame
Neon nights, neon nights Red eye whiskey and lady luck
Have always been good friends
Their love is pain, the same old stuff
Always alone in the end Could they be me and you
Watching how the nights move Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame
Neon nights, neon nights, never change
Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame
Neon nights, neon nights Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame
Neon nights, neon nights, never change
Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame
Neon nights, neon nights Neon nights, neon nights
Neon nights, neon nights
Neon nights, neon nights
