Neon Nights

Accept

When the day is done the night rolls in Lonely lovers come alive Like a heartbeat in a world of sin Cruising around hungry eyesLike a midnight train going nowhere Fading dreams of the city Penthouse beds, sweet love affairs Crimes of passion for the prettyMan in blue on his beat Unseen faces in the streetsNeon nights, neon nights, endless flame Neon nights, neon nights, never change Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame Neon nights, neon nightsRed eye whiskey and lady luck Have always been good friends Their love is pain, the same old stuff Always alone in the endCould they be me and you Watching how the nights moveNeon nights, neon nights, endless flame Neon nights, neon nights, never change Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame Neon nights, neon nights, neon nights, endless flame Neon nights, neon nights, never change Neon nights, neon nights, endless flame Neon nights, neon nightsNeon nights, neon nights Neon nights, neon nights Neon nights, neon nights
