Healer

Badlands

Ah, healin'
Tried to burn the fire inside
Now it's knockin' at your door
Say hello to karma
Yet through so many lies I wade
The truth in time will lay you down to rest
All that stands before me
Will turn dark and full of life
Yeah, yeah
You close your eyes
Your nightmare sweats
And life's a bitch
Say hello my friend
Steady life is on the end
Blood will spell your game
All that stands before me
Will turn dark and full of life
Yeah, yeah
Lord I'm healin', oh
All that stands before me
Will turn dark and full of life
Yeah, yeah
Lord I'm healin'
Yes, I'm healin'
Lord I'm healin'
Don't try to steal my soul
Lord I'm healin'
Everybody knows your name
Everybody knows your name
Yeah, karma, karma, karma, karma, karma
Knockin' at your door
