

The Wizard Believe

Neon Hitch

Wizard Intro

Wizard: "Let's see, you're uh, traveling in disguise. No, uh that's not right, I'm eh. You're uh going on a visit. No, I'm wrong that's... You're running away. Now why are you running away? No no no no don't tell me. They, uh, they don't understand you. They don't appreciate you. You wanna see other lands, big cities, big mountains, big oceans..."

Child: "It's like you read what was inside of me!"

Wizard: "Yeah"

Verse 1:

You told me the shit I must know
See I'm walking out here solo
Listening to the Beatles
And my favorite thing they said was
All you really need is love
I know they can be critical
But the only time we give up
Is when we're in heaven, yeah

Chorus:

Just hold your head up high
(If you do believe, you do believe)
Spread your wings and fly
(Yes I do believe, I do believe)
Someday we will find
A place that we are finally free
Hold your flag up high
Do you believe in?
(I do believe, I do believe in) 2x
Do you believe in?
(I do believe, I do believe in) 2x

Do you believe in?

Verse 2:

May 25th, '86

My house burned down into bits
But we didn't let it stop us
No we begun life on the bus
Shit makes all the flowers grow
Unusual is beautiful
And every single one of us
Yeah, we'll meet in heaven, yeah

Chorus:

Just hold your head up high
(If you do believe, you do believe)
Spread your wings and fly
(Yes I do believe, I do believe)
Someday we will find
A place that we are finally free
Hold your flag up high
Do you believe in?
(I do believe, I do believe in) 2x
Do you believe in?
(I do believe, I do believe in) 2x
Do you believe in?
(I do believe, I do believe in)
(I do believe, I do believe in)
3x
