3Am

Adam Barnes

Give me another glass of spirit
Let it slowly drown my soul
It doesn't matter what is in it
As long as my problems go'Cause we can't wait around till morning
For the bar is sure to close
And we'll exaggerate the impact
That it's been leaving on my steady clBut the warmth in my throat
May not be as permanent as I once feared
And the shadows on the stool
Aren't as shy as they appearIf I'm a drunk then please ignore me
I wasn't there when times were bad
You thought I never once adored my coldest feet
And since ignored the only girl I ever truly hadSo take your coat and go
You'll need it when it's colder
Or stay with me tonight
And watch me waste my only chance
To hold her
It's the only way to learn about mistakes you've made
At 3 am'Cause she has poise, she has thunder
She speaks a love that's never shown
And I'm not sure that she'll remember
Those many nights she left me here alone'Cause I'm a drunk and I deserved it
There were more than subtle signs
There's no reflection in the mirror
What I once believed was here
It's getting clear I struggle with my mindSo take your coat and go
You'll need it when it's colder
Or stay with me tonight
And watch me waste my only chance
To hold her
It's the only way to learn about mistakes you've made
At 3 amGive me another glass of spirit
Let it slowly drown my soul
It doesn't matter what is in it
As long as my problems go
As long as my problems go
