

Hole In Your Halo

Ana Egge

Your flowers are growin wild in the west
They may be pretty but theyre poisonous
Behind the bars youre falling apart
Its not the first time you went too farTheres a hole in your halo
Where the sun dont shine
In the darkness I know
Its a thin line
There's a hole in your halo
Where the sun don't shineIt's been a month now plus a week or two
I'm the only one who's come to visit you
Who's gonna answer for what you've done
Behind your eyes there's no oneTheres a hole in your halo
Where the sun dont shine
In the darkness I know
Its a thin line
There's a hole in your halo
Where the sun don't shineLike a storm brewin' in an empty room
I stop tryin' to keep my eye on you
Speak of the devil and he will come
Up inside the minds of the ones you loveTheres a hole in your halo
Where the sun dont shine
In the darkness I know
Its a thin line
There's a hole in your halo
Where the sun don't shine
