Hello Somebody

Handsome Devil

Well Guess who's in the neighborhood?
I don't need your fancy invitation,
I ain't coming to the front door, thought I might slide in for some private conversation,I'm tired of these people, how they put me down,
Well Here I am in your face,
I'll prove them wrong,Hello How do you do?
I was just passing through and thinking of you, and I Want Somebody, SomebodyWell I just might crash your party, understand I'm only looking for a good time, and if I seem a little rude, please excuse me I was raised on the dark side,No I ain't too particular,
It ain't like that,
See I just want your company, Understand? YeahHello How do you do?
I was just passing through and thinking of you, and I Want Somebody, Somebody [x3]And I'm tired of these people, how they put me down.
