I Will Let You Sleep

Freddy Hall

When the sun's waves
Creeps through the blinds
Leaks through the lines
In your bed

I will let you sleep

I will slide out
Sneak down the side
Leave the sheets nice and tight
To your skin

I will let you sleep

I will

When you dream
Will I be there
And hold you through time?
Will we slow dance on
Tangerine vines?
Like you said we did

We float through the stars
Land in my arms
And we can age like strawberry wine

If I let you sleep
Will you promise
To always be mine?

In the moonlight
I'll crawl back to bed
Follow your breath
'Til I fade

And we'll fall asleep
You and I
