

Tumble Down

Diana King

They say that nothin' lasts forever
And things can fall apart in a day
Weve been so happy together, oh
I just want you to know, Im here to stay, ohSo if your luck ever leaves you
And your friends dont call
If they should ever deceive you
I wont let you fall'Cause if it all comes tumble tumble down
You know Im the one wholl always need you so
Im the one wholl never let you go
If it all comes crashin' to the groundYou know Im the one wholl find you anywhere
Im the girl you know wholl always care
If it all comes tumble tumble downThey say that the citys gonna slide in the ocean
And rains gonna fall for forty days
Nothin' can stop my sweet devotion
Nothin' could make me go away'Cause if the world goes crazy
And we lose it all
Reach out and catch me
Dont let me fallCause if it all comes tumble tumble down
You know Im the one wholl always need you so
Im the one wholl never let you goIf it all comes tumble tumble down
You know Im the one wholl always understand
Im the one wholl take you by the hand
If it all comes tumble tumble down
If it all comes tumble tumble downMi nah gon' leave you
Mi a gon' show you that mi love is true
Please believe me, hug mi up an' squeeze me
Doubt mi never, mi nah gon' hurt you ever
'Cause mi love is forever, you and I together'Cause if the world goes crazy
And we lose it all
Reach out and catch me
Dont let me fallCause if it all comes tumble tumble down
You know Im the one wholl always need you so
Im the one wholl never let you goIf it all comes crashin' to the ground, oh
You know Im the one wholl find you anywhere
Im the girl you know wholl always care
If it all comes tumble tumble downIf it all comes tumble tumble down
If it all comes tumble tumble down
Tumble down, down, down
