

After All (Svenson And Gielen Remix)

Delerium

She knows the voices in her mind
They tell her
To leaveShe's tired of smiling madly
Until silence becomes very silently
A noise in her mindAfter all she has nothing inside
No good to give
No meaning to live
The mist engulfed tonight
Every single starAfter all they shared
How could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieShe knows the noises in her mind
Nothing's left but
Screaming silenceAfter all she feels numbness inside
The feeling's gone
She's upside down
The pictures behind her closed eyes
This time you went too farAfter all they shared
How could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieAfter all they shared
How could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieAfter all she has nothing inside
No good to give
No meaning to live
The mist engulfed tonight
Every single starAfter all they shared
How could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieAfter all they shared

How could he simply say no (simply say no)
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieAfter all they shared
How could he simply say no (simply say no)
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieAfter all they shared
How could he simply say no (how could he simply say no)
After all they shared (after all)
He turned away from her to go (he just turned away)
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lie
