Chain Reaction

Midnight Ministers

Action
Chain reaction-action
Chain reaction

I feel like I'm hallucinating
Yeah you're tripping me out
I can't control, it's you I'm craving
I can just tell you're down.

Come get me, Let's get rowdy
Boy you look so damn good on me.

Back to the wall
I'm -- to the web
When you walked right by
Felt your breath on my neck
And it felt so deep
In a trance of a sleep
Have I seen you before?
Once in a dream

Like a flashback, sneak attack, chain reaction
At the first sight you just might be the right one.
You got something (out of you) like a rerun.
Try but can't explain this chain reaction

You hit me like a shot of whiskey
You got me walking sideways
Tunnel vision feeling frisky
Want to get you stuck on replay

I don't fall like this
I must confess you cast a spell up on me

(Shout at us) in the room of sweat
You took my hand to the back and left
And it felt so deep
In a trance of a sleep
Have I seen you before?

Once in a dream

Like a flashback, sneak attack, chain reaction
At the first sight you just might be the right one.
You got something (out of you) like a rerun.
Try but can't explain this chain reaction

Ohhh ohoh, chain reaction
Spin me around, all around
Oh feels like a lifetime
(I've been waiting)
One time I look goes down
Then they all hit the ground
(And not deliberate)
It all happens for a reason right?
Guess there's no need to fight it right?
Cause one thing leads to another,
Leads to another, leads to another.

Like a flashback, sneak attack, chain reaction
At the first sight you just might be the right one
You got something (out of you) like a rerun.
Try but can't explain this chain reaction

Chain reaction, this chain reaction
Chain reaction, this chain reaction
Chain reaction, this chain reaction
Chain reaction, this chain reaction
