

Harvest The Garden

Mushroomhead

It's time we Harvest The Garden
It's time we feed these pyres their meat
It's time we rise with new vengeance
It's time we end this hypocrisy
Sooner or everything's ending
Until we're all together, deceased Live your lobotomy, reclaim your brain or you have suicided your dreams
Imperfections are what tear us apart
Breaking down your needs,
Closing your eyes to the sadness that we see Cleansing our soul this is tragic Closing our eyes to the sadness,
The way you want, the kill, the hunt
so fuck the cunt and everything that comes along with it
The way you want, the kill, the hunt
so fuck the cunt and everything that
comes along with it
You motherfuckers better run and hide and try to buy your way out of this shit, Yeah!

Imperfections are what tear us apart
Breaking down your needs,
Closing your eyes to the sadness that we see
Such a tragedy
Closing your eyes to the sadness,
Slowly drifting down to madness and I can swear
I've been there, Before
Imperfections are what tear us apart
Breaking down your needs,
To cleanse your weakness [x2]
It's time we Harvest The Garden
It's time we feed these pyres their meat
It's time we rise with new vengeance
It's time we end this hypocrisy
It's time we Harvest The Garden
It's time we feed these pyres their meat

It's time we rise with new vengeance
It's time we end this hypocrisy
It's such a tragedy
