Your Kind Of Love

Ronnie Dunn

Baby, come over here, let's lay down
Whisper in my ear, oh, I love that sound
Close your eyes, feel my touch
Oh, I'll die trying to give you as much

'Cause your kind of love's the best ever made
Makes me wanna come home at the end of the day
And fall into your arms where I'm safe from harm

Yeah, you're warm like the sun
New like a dream, you're heart and soul
You're showing me things that I've never seen
And I can't get enough of your kind of love

You know there was a time, not that long ago
Oh, they called me a cowboy no one could rope
Baby, look at me, give me another kiss
If I'd kept on moving, look what I'd have missed

Yeah, your kind of love's the best ever made
Makes me wanna come home at the end of the day
And fall into your arms where I'm safe from harm

Well, you're warm like the sun
To me like a dream, you're heart and soul
You're showing me things that I've never seen
Oh, I can't get enough of your kind of love

Oh, your kind of love's the best ever made
Makes me wanna come home
Fall into your arms where I'm safe from harm

Yeah, you're warm like the sun
To me like a dream, you're heart and soul
You're showing me things that I've never seen
And I can't get enough of your kind of love
