Running

Lucy Schwartz

Is it wrong to be right if Iâ€™m losing the fight
Am I destined to be the one melody that holds through the night

Are you broken in half but still running too fast
Are you too blind to see me, caught in your dreaming
Left in the past

Well you canâ€™t keep on running
Without watching the ground
Cause this loveâ€™s gonna find you when itâ€™s too late to be found
No you canâ€™t keep on running

Is it time that you fear
Is the ending too near
Would you give up the race to stand in one place
And know that youâ€™re here

I have been by your side for the loneliest ride
But I canâ€™t seem to move you
No one could prove you wrong if they tried

Well you canâ€™t keep on running
Without watching the ground
Cause this loveâ€™s gonna find you when itâ€™s too late to be found
No you canâ€™t keep on running

You run until you canâ€™t come back
Come back, come back
You run until your feet turn black
Come back, come back

Well you canâ€™t keep on running
Without watching the ground
Cause this loveâ€™s gonna find you when itâ€™s too late
