Not Your Lover

Blitzen Trapper

In my sleep, Im not your lover anymore
When I wake, I have to remind myself that Im lying on your shoreCause Im a moon-walking cowboy
Dusty riding and I dont know whats in store
All I know is in my sleep Im not your lover anymoreWhen Im dreaming, I could be anyone
Yeah a brother or a friend
Or a husband, baby, with a golden touch
Or just another dead endYeah Im a moon-walking cowboy
Dusty riding and I dont know whats in store
All I know is in my sleep Im not your lover anymoreIn my sleep Im not your lover anymoreSo if you watch me while Im sleeping in my bed
Well Im a million miles away inside
Some other strangers head
So put your fingers to my cheek and call my name
But I cant hear you now my girl
Cause your voice, it dont sound the sameCause Im a moon-walking cowboy
Dusty riding and I dont know whats in store
All I know is in my sleep Im not your lover anymoreWhen Im awake, Im yours and Im sticking around
Gonna walk on down your shore
But in my sleep Im not your lover anymore
In my sleep Im not your lover anymore
