Dose

The Apache Relay

All I need is another dose, still I'll never ask for more
You gotta feel me up before you let me fall, wrath of your oaths
In a dream I have, in a minute before, said I'll never be alone
I wish our face could blow, starting with your words
Why do I feel so low?It's not a fever that's keeping me up at night
I know you mean well, but you always leave me paralyzed
Don't you know know
Don't you know
All I need's another dose
