Why Shouldn't We

Mary Chapin Carpenter

We believe in things that we cannot see

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we?

Hands that heal can set a chained man free

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we? And we believe in peace within every heart

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we?

Burning brightly, brightly in the dark

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we? So come on darling, feel your spirits rise

Come on children, open up your eyes

God is all around, Buddha's us at the gate

Allah hears your prayers, it's not too lateAnd we believe in things that will give us hope

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we?

Let your voice be heard, celebrate your voice

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we?So come on darling, feel your spirits rise

Come on children, open up your eyes

God is all around, Buddha's at the gate

Allah hears your prayers it's not too lateWe believe in things that make us all the same

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we?

Love belongs to all, in deed and aim

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we? And we believe in things that can't be done

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we?

Lift up your heart, put down your gun

Why shouldn't we? Why shouldn't we? We believe in things we're told that we can't change

Why shouldn't we?

We had heroes once and we will again

Why shouldn't we? So come on darling

Come on children

God is all around, Buddha's at the gate

Allah hears our prayers, it's not too lateSo come on darling, feel your spirits rise

Come on children, open up your eyes

God is all around, Buddha's at the gate

Allah hears your prayers, it's not too lateWhy shouldn't we?

Why shouldn't we?

Why shouldn't we?

Why shouldn't we?

Why shouldn't we?
