Out Out Out

Dear Reader

i'm so afraid, can't find a way out and it's making me ill you have injected my veins with a grave doubt now i can't sit stilli don't know what you want from me but you ain't gonna get it not sure who you think you see, but it ain't me i'd rather quit iti'm so afraid gotta find a way outdon't look at me your eyes are drilling like lasers too many games, too many games too many playersi'm not sure who to trust no more and it's debilitating on my own what i've got it's small but it's safe heredon't look at me rather get outi'm so afraid, can't find my way out
my heart is black, my heart is dark and full of doubt outim not sure what you want from me
not sure who you think you see but it aint me
id rather quit itim so afraid
gotta find my out
gotta find my out
