

Lucy

Hanson

The day that I left Lucy
A tear fell from her eye
Now I don't have nobody and I was such a fool
On the day that I left Lucy The day that I left Lucy
She cried, then said, "Goodbye"
Now it's done and it's over and I am all alone
On the day that I left Lucy Now I don't have anymore songs to sing
'Cause you were everything, everything to me
I didn't realize that I felt this way
Until that day Today I'm missing Lucy
And you say that she's okay, I hope she is Now I don't have nobody and no one will ever replace
My Lucy, I love Lucy, Lucy On the day that I left Lucy
My Lucy
