

So, so, so Long

Reba McEntire

You know it seems like I've loved you forever
Who could be closer than you and I
People even say, we're so much alike
But they don't know why I've been loving you so long
That I know every move you make, every breath you take
What I feel is so strong, sometimes I don't know where I end
Where you begin And you make me so happy feeling like this
There's so much ahead that I don't want to miss
Oh, I want to keep it so good, so, so, so long
So good, so real, so right
Oh, I want to keep it so good, so, so, so long Oh, darling, don't think for a minute
Time could ever steal the thrill away
You've still got the power to be my man
And you know you can I've been loving you so long
That I know every move you make, every breath you take
What I feel is so strong, sometimes I don't know where I end
Where you begin And you make me so happy feeling like this
There's so much ahead that I don't want to miss
Oh, I want to keep it so good, so, so, so long
Oh, I want to keep it so good, so, so, so long
So long, so fine, so long
So good, so fine, so long
So, so, so long
