Fingerprint

Leona Lewis

Circles with no end
The ink that stains my skin
Secrets where've you been
Is the only thing that I keepNo match, no match, no match
For your fingerprint
No substitute, no other youNo match, no match, no match
For your fingerprint
No substitute, no other youBursting for one sin
Of the innocence I once had
Shadows of the past
And the tattoo lies of your kissNo match, no match, no match
For your fingerprint
No substitute, no other you'Cause there can only be one
There can only be oneCircles with no end
The ink that stains my skinNo match, no match, no match
For your fingerprint
No substitute, no other you'Cause there can only be one
There can only be one
There can only be one
There can only be one
