The Hey Man!

Emanuel

[Spoken:]
Listen up, motherfuckers, this is that new unheard of unspoken so if you're down then get down and if you're not then get the fuck out!Yeah with guns still smoking
We're taking off the masks, that we all wear
There's bloodstains on the dancefloor and it's dripping from the lips of another jelous mouth
Hey man! You better watch, better listen in
Oh yeah? You got her taking home this record to fuck
Hey man! You ask me now if I want it all
Right now!This is the sound that sparks the fire
Live tonight for liars
Alive tonight to say, that I am
I am the voice inside your head, and you give yourself awayI see you getting high in the alley
"What if you do? I'll hold one for you"
You walked up and you kicked in a dent
"Not with these boots you'd recognize the prints"
You showed up and you ruined my party!
"It's not true. What is it to you? Its everything and nothing I do"
Hey man! You better watch, better listen in
Oh yeah? You got her taking home this record to fuck
Hey man! You ask me now if I want it all
Right now!This is the sound that sparks the fire
Live tonight for liars
Alive tonight to say, that I am
I am the voice inside your head, and you give yourself awayHey brother put your best shoes on Hey brother it's your, it's your come up and,
Hey brother grow your hair out long
Tell your sister she's a...Hey brother put your best shoes on Hey brother it's your, it's your come up and,
Hey brother grow your hair out long
Tell your sister she's a...Hey brother put your best shoes on Hey brother it's your, it's your come up and,
Hey brother grow your hair out long
Tell your sister she's a... Bitch!This is the sound that sparks the fire
Live tonight for liars
Alive tonight to say, that I am
I am the voice inside your head, and you give yourself away
