

Tug-O-War

Dan Milner

Feed the cut and get in line
To live and burn is tug-o-warRapedGo back and forth until it's learned
To suffer now or nothing's gained
Then wake within a freezing sweat
Push and pull, collecting doubtStarting seedsLost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignoredRapedThe reason never outweighs the truth
So backing up and lean against
The liars club cometh shame
Wasting farther collecting doubtStarting seedsLost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignoredSo hand it off, don't care enough
'Cause ignorance, is in blissful reachLost inspiration, panic on the rise
A severed attempt ignoredLost inspiration, never played the game
A severed attempt ignoredFeed, the last head trip
