

Fade 2 Blaq

Abra

(I will be the only one
I will hang the moon and sun
Be there when it fades to. fades to.) x2

Even if they let you down
They can never make you fall
And they don't understand
They think we think we knew it all
What is fear
You can embrace
Don't close your eyes
Don't turn your face
Don't be afraid
Don't look back and fall to salt
Don't be scared now just be strong
Shake it off
(Shake it off yeah)
Shake it off
(Shake it off yeah)

CHORUS

I can be the only one
I will hang the moon and sun
Be there when it fades to black
I will always have your back
If your love is all that X2
(That...That...That...That...)

Would you live
In heaven forever
Its suicide its idle
Baby
We know better
Cause triumph tastes so sweet
When we've been living on our knees
Oh lord triumph tastes so sweet
So sweet
When we've been crawling on our knees
Don't let go

If there ever was a soul
To trust
It's me
And baby I hope
All the shit we done been thru
Has made you see
Donâ€™t let go
If there ever was a soul
To trust
It's me
And baby I know
All the shit we done been thru
has made you see

CHORUS

I can be the only one
I will hang the moon and sun
Be there when it fades to black
I will always have your back
If your love is all that
I can be the only one
I will hang the moon and sun
Be there when it fades to black
I will always have my back
If my love is all that (Be there when it fades to black)
