Be Gone Forever

Guy Clark

Sometimes a loser
Sometimes a hero
This is a lonely captain's story
Sword and a pistol by his sideDo Lord, oh do remember Him
Yes, yes, remember Him, there will be a singer
Whenever his time has come to die
Be gone foreverSometimes an angel
Sometimes unwanted
This is a lonely nurse's story
Watch and a clipboard by her sideDo Lord, oh do remember Him
Yes, yes, remember Him, there will be a singer
Whenever his time has come to die
Be gone foreverSometimes a legend
Sometimes a beggar
This is a lonely hobo's story
Cane and a switchblade by his sideDo Lord, oh do remember Him
Yes, yes, remember Him, there will be a singer
Whenever his time has come to die
Be gone foreverSometimes we're ugly
Not really worth it
This is a lonely planet's story
We're the third one from the sunDo Lord, oh do remember Him
Yes, yes, remember Him, there will be a singer
Whenever his time has come to die
Be gone forever
