Mutron Angel

Outkast

In the hour of the storm
Lookin' out through the rain
Gabe will blow your horn
They shield me from tsunamis and the hurricanes
Gangsta ride right in the nick of time
Soldiers stay affronted then they blow your mind, mmm
Bold ass soldiers marchin' off to war
No idea what we in for, mmm
Powerful, magnificent and so divine
Soldiers stay affronted it'll blow your mind, mmm
Hear the thunderous voice
Shoutin' there will be no peace
Until our people rejoice
When every boy and girl is freed
You see it's goin' down
The wars and the mysteries
But my friends, they'll be better days
And a better way accordin' to the prophecies
It would be so nice
To hook up in paradise
By all means we must go
But are you in the know?
Like a ray of sunshine
You been a friend of mine
Gangsta ride right in the nick of time
Soldiers stay affronted then they blow your mind, mmm
Bold ass soldiers marchin' off to war
No idea what we in for, ooh
Powerful, magnificent and so divine
Soldiers stay affronted it'll blow your mind, mmm
You been a friend of mine
It would be so nice
To hook up in paradise
By all means we must go
But are you in the know?
Like a ray of sunshine
{There'll be better days and better ways
Yes there will, yes there will}
