

Forever Winter

Emma Forman

It is forever winter when you are around bringing me down is all that you do you tell me a story but it's not the truth it never is with you I'm trying to find a place that warmer your heart is so cold You leave me alone, alone up to my ankles in the snow I'm standing on the outside of the darkside of the wall the wall that you built to keep me out in the cold You never really let me know you
I'm always standing on the outside It's forever winter
It's forever winter
It's forever winter loving you It's forever winter when I look you into eyes
They are bright, they are mystical and blue but they never answer any of my questions they just lead me astray they lead me to emptiness Oh they lead, nowhere You never really let me know you
I'm always standing on the outside It's forever winter
It's forever winter
It's forever winter loving you It's forever winter
Oh It's forever winter loving you
